DELICATE GROUND.

In the course of a life you are likely to mix
Among folks of all possible kinds;
And, in talking, it's highly improper to fix
Upon any chance topic one finds.
You may long to exhibit your wisdom or fun,
You may try to be gay or profound;
But you'll often discover when once you've begun,
That you are treading on "delicate ground."

Now suppose that a friend has induced you to lend
A respectable sum long ago;
And the time for repayment has come to an end,
But repayment is dreadfully slow.
If you venture to hint at a trifling advance
Of a shilling or two in the pound,
You can hardly insist, when you see at a glance
That you're treading on "delicate ground."

If you trouble in love and are burning to "pop,"
You should never lose time in despair!
But at once on your knees you should gracefully drop,
And express what you have to declare.
If the nymph should have smiled on a happier swain,
While on you she has constantly frowned,
You may give up the case, for its perfectly plain
That you're treading on "delicate ground."

It's a difficult thing to be always discreet,
Or talk in a frank sort of way,
When you think of the number of people you meet,
And the number of things that you say.
If you notice a sudden and absolute blank
In the whole of the faces around,
You have only yourself and your folly to thank,
That you're treading on "delicate ground."

COCK FIGHT.—On a certain day a great muster was to come off at some tavern in the county of Henrico, and of course a cock-fight or two. At the appointed time a great many persons were present, and among them Mr. M., a gentleman of the real old stripe, who had made a few ten dollar bets on the cock fight and lost every one. He was commenting on his bad luck, when Old Ned was seen approaching with a large bag thrown over his shoulder.

Hallos, Ned, what have you got there? Fust-rate cock, Massa M.

Game, Ned?

Oh, yes; game as a panther, Massa M. Out with him, Ned; out with him.

And Ned drew forth a large speckled cock, which, to judge by his size, was a perfect bruiser.

What's the price, Ned?

Five dollars, massa, an' cheap at dat; an' if any cock on dis ground kill dis cock, I gim you back de money.

The bargain was accordingly struck, and the match right away. M. bet the amount he had already lost, and the cocks were put in the ring.

At the first touch of the steel Old Ned's cock gave a most awful squall and took a strong wing for the woods. M. was furious while the crowd laughed—fairly screamed—with the enjoyment of the fun. Old Ned was accordingly hauled up with the application of some pretty hard epithets.

Didn't I tell you Massa M., says Ned, if any cock here kill dat cock I gim you back de five dollars? But dey got to cotch him fus; and never see any cock outrun old Skewball in my life. Ya! ya!

M. wanted to be very angry, but it was no go; his anger was choked down by the uproarious laughter of the crowd that met him on every side, and he was forced to enjoy it as a capital joke. Old Ned continued to frequent the race courses till the day of his death.

The war is over and the dead are buried. The God of nature has covered their graves with green grass and beautiful flowers to show us nature should imitate this divine example and wipe out the traces of passion and hate in the minds of the American people.—Gov. Seymour at Columbus.

Here is a queer announcement, which appears in the columns of the Helena (Arkansas) Clarion. It illustrates the beauties of the Radical reconstruction policy:

"Many inquiries are made for the Judge of this district. For general information, we will state that his name is Bennett, and he resides in New York, where he is at present with his family."

A New York correspondent writes that "things are stunning in Broadway just now. The ladies are out in full bloom, with dresses trimmed of the oddest colors, a bright yellow on a black ground being considered the correct thing."

In London, a publisher announces the concluding volume of "Lord Campbell's Lives of the Lord Chancellors," containing the biographies of Lords Brougham and Lyndhurst. The fact that Lord Campbell died several years before these gentlemen, makes the volume an unique one.

Another duel in Paris. A Frenchman "insulted" the British Flag, and an Englishman challenged him. The Frenchman had the first shot, and missed. The Englishman fired into the air. In this manner, by allowing himself to be shot at, he kindly fancies he has wiped out the insult to his flag.

A GOOD TEXT.—Below will be found what is deemed a proper text from which to preach the funeral sermon of Ben Butler: From Jeremiah iii., 19: "And the basins, and the fire-pans, and the bowls, spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away."

It is calculated that if a human being could make as much noise in proportion to his size as a locust, he could be heard to sing from London to St. Petersburg. It is a merciful provision of nature that he cannot.

A traveling life insurance agent applied to a Texan to "take out a policy," but the Texan replied: "A fellow's life is so confounded uncertain in this community it ain't worth insuring."

A surgeon whose wife is a great scold, being asked what he thought would be the greatest triumph of the surgical art, replied: "To take the jaw out of a scolding woman."

A hospital for "women who have become disgusted with their husbands" is to be established in Cleveland. But where on earth will they find a building large enough?

A sporting man remarked, of a belle, in the habit of wearing low necked dresses who carried off a matrimonial prize in the shape of a rich old widower, that "she won the race by a neck."

A Polish Jew of Wilna, who was so unfortunate as to have his house burned down, was fined twenty five rouble by the Russian magistrate for crying fire in the Polish language.

A shopkeeper in Illinois recently fixed a pistol in his money drawer, so as to shoot a suspected thief-taper, and the first man it shot was himself.

In Connecticut, a boy of twenty has just married a widow of fifty, who has seven children. The eldest is six years older than his new "pepa."

"Excuse me, madam, but I would like to ask you why look at me so very savagely?" "Oh! beg your pardon, sir, but I took you for my husband."

Letters from Hong Kong announce that Christians are subject to persecution in Japan, and a number have been condemned to hard labor.

Dr. Francis, of Newport, has invented and patented a new apparatus to answer the double purpose of heating railroad cars in Winter and ventilating them in Summer.

It is said of a fashionable lady, who went to a party in the city, not long since, that she arrived there about the first of the evening, but the last of her dress did not arrive until after twelve o'clock.

"You must be economical, my son. 'A pin a day is a groat a year' you know." "Then, father, I think I'll go ten pins every day."

The Radicals have found another terrible society in the South, known as "Knights of the White Camelia."

The "Tennessee Mounds" are being explored, and human remains, pottery, shell ornaments, vases, and stone idols discovered.

The champion drinker of lager beer in Cleveland has accomplished 106 glasses in one day, and invites any one to beat it.

Great Britain raises 120,000,000 bushels of wheat this year—48,000,000 more than last year.

Scotch plaids, it is said will be "the thing" for ladies' walking suits this winter.

The average decline in grain in Chicago during the past month has been a cent a day.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE JAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., all sell stuff. What a motley set of individuals!

Now just let me tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give cash and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

POPULATION—IMMIGRATION.

The evidence, by this time, must be palpable to every one, that the Southern people have been deluded, since the close of the war, by the hopes which have been excited in their bosoms by the politicians, North, of both parties, of a short road to the recuperation of the country and the revival of the industries and enterprise of our people.—This, they have assured us, was to be effected, either, on the one hand, by favorable changes in the policy of the government towards us, or, on the other, by the assurance that the continuance of the party in power and the carrying out of its policy would produce a powerful reaction, and cause population and capital to flow in upon us like a torrent.

The people of this country, both North and South, have always laid too much stress upon the aid which the Federal government could and ought to afford them, in their material interests. Hence, at a very early period, a struggle for the ascendancy in the government of rival interests so soon terminated in sectional prejudices and hatred, which culminated finally in a fratricidal war.

The rapid increase of an enterprising white population at the North not only gave it a superiority in numbers, but in wealth, which soon gave it such a controlling influence in the government, as led it to manipulate and control its powers, so as to enhance its wealth and finally its authority and power. Had the South sought to husband its resources, increase its population, manufacture its own material and conduct its own commerce, instead of wasting its strength in a contest at large odds for political power, the supposed necessity for the late unfortunate war would never have existed.

Wealth is power, among nations as among individuals. After all, that is really what the world is seeking. Had the South, therefore, laid the foundations of its wealth in the increase of its white population, in their skill in agriculture, mechanics, manufactures, and in the enterprise and management of its own commerce, rather than in the increase of its slaves and the destruction, instead of the improvement, of its virgin soil, the negro, the "almighty negro," would never have become an important constituent in our wealth nor an idol in our politics.

The South, by the simple improvement of the vantage ground she possessed in her soil, her climate, and her resources, under the skill and energy of an accumulating white population of the best classes of foreigners, instead of being "a hewer of wood and a drawer of water for the North," because of her sheer devotion to the idea of wealth in the dull, ignorant, lazy negro, would have been a fair and equal competitor with the North to-day, and measurably independent of her, in the fields of enterprise and commerce, in whatever could produce real wealth and consequently real strength.

The North, having accomplished its purposes in securing the control of the government, let the South now go back to the standing point in the history of the North, and imitate her example and follow her footsteps, which led her on to wealth and power. Let the Southern people cease to worry and fret themselves over fruitless contests with the North for political power and control in the government. Let them give a truce to merely political parties and to partizan politics. Concede, if need be to the North, the right, because it possesses the power, to control the national government, and trust to its practical sense, and to its keen perception of its own interests, the reason and the necessity of showing humanity, forbearance and justice to a down-trodden and impoverished people, by administering the government so as not to oppress, but to build up, all portions of the Republic.

But let the Southern people, with one heart and one mind, coalesce, concentrate and consolidate, in close and compact organizations, for our present and future material prosperity. Population, skilled labor and well directed energy must supply the place of capital, for a time at least. We must combine to cultivate our lands with the most efficient and cheap labor that can be procured—to manufacture our own implements, tools, articles for domestic use, and our own clothing, grow our own bread, raise our own meat, our butter and cheese, —in fine, everything we consume—and manufacture our own material, as far as possible, and conduct our own commerce.—Above all, every one must learn to export more than we import into the State. Unless, as a State, we learn to buy less from abroad than we sell, poverty and bankruptcy must follow. And if we borrow greenbacks from abroad, at a ruinous discount, to be paid in gold at a future day, with interest, to build Railroads or other improvements, what is to be the upshot but repudiation or slavery? What man can prosper in business, who takes fifty or sixty or seventy cents in the dollar, and gives his note for a dollar, to run on interest, to be paid in gold, to be invested in an enterprise that cannot for years be kept going and pay six per cent? If a man cannot do it, can a corporation or a State? Is it not a sure road to bankruptcy or repudiation?

The great cry set up, is, we need Northern capital! Can you get it, except at a ruinous discount? Certainly not. But it is perhaps whispered, "let us get all we can.—Paying is another matter. We leave that for the future to provide."

It strikes us, that the great need of the South is population, first—a hardy, industrious, enterprising race of white men, and women and children, inured to labor and skilled in agriculture, mechanics, &c.,—families possessed of some means, if possible, from the sober, industrious peasantry of Europe. If our laboring white and black population will work and labor to improve their condition and help the country, all well and good. The more the better. Work is the rule now in the South, or perish.

We cannot have too many working people. We have urged a State Association to promote and manage this matter of immigration. North Carolina must have a larger, more enterprising, more skillful and a more industrious population. We care not where they come from. If they are white, sober, skilled workers, we care not how many come or from what quarter? We must have them.

IMMIGRATION MEETING AT GOLDSBORO.

We have, in another article, urged the imperious necessity of an increase of the white laboring and enterprising population of the State, as a sine qua non to the future prosperity of North Carolina and of the whole South. This is not urged in any hostile spirit to the colored population of the State. They need a stimulus to their own enterprise and industry. They have been deluded by the idea of permanent help from the government. Experience has shown that whatever may have been the object of the government, heretofore, in affording them material help, its effect upon large numbers has been prejudicial to their industry and enterprise and has seriously interfered with their self reliance. There is abundant room in the South, not only for the industry and enterprise of its present population, but for a large increase of working population from abroad. This idea must now be pressed with energy upon our people.

We are glad, indeed, that Hon. W. T. Dortch, of Goldsboro', has called a meeting in that place, on the 13th inst., of substantial planters, to consult together as to how many Swiss families, laboring people, they wish to settle on their lands. The Messrs. Atkinson, of Johnston, have made the trial. They believe the thing will succeed. Let fifty or a hundred of the planters of Halifax, Warren, Granville, Franklin, Nash, Wake, and other counties, go into it. Let them meet Mr. Trueb, Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Dortch, and set the ball in motion.—We wish there were 10,000 good Dutch laboring families settled upon our fine swamp lands in the East. They are used to a damp climate and understand dyke-ing.—Our hilly and mountain country could afford ample verge for 100,000 Swiss, German and Lombard families. Let them come from every quarter, and they will be welcome.

THE GREAT ISSUE.—In an eminently thoughtful and impressive speech of Mr. J. Q. Adams, delivered at Albany, N. Y., this gentleman uses words of warning and admonition so eminently fit and appropriate to the present juncture, that, though the election is over, we cite them for the attention of our readers. Said he:

"I will not close my speech as I began, as a Democrat or a partizan; but I will, in conclusion, pray you, as American citizens, to try, in this supreme crisis of our fate, to rise above party or section, to stretch out beyond this little shred of time, to forget this heated canvass, and, as citizens of the great republic, contemplate the long reaches of her grand career. Shall it be that we must tread over and over again the old course, from liberty to license, from license to anarchy, from anarchy to despotism?—Must it be that we are to furnish another failure of constitutional, regulated liberty? Can it be that in our hasty impatience of transient troubles we are madly bent upon leveling with the earth the temple that our fathers builded? Oh, my countrymen, these, our trials, are but transitory if you will but be patient. In a little while, if you will be steadfast, they will pass away; but if, on Tuesday next, you register your resolve to return no more to the old ways, we shall wander on in this dismal revolutionary wilderness, no man can tell how long or how far. Have you been so much happier since you abandoned the faith of your fathers to follow after these strange gods, that you should still cling to them? Has the path been so pleasant since you wandered from the ancestral track that you would not, if you could, regain it? No, my friends, let us retrace our heedless steps, and, for the future, cursed be he who removes the ancient landmarks!"

Truer and more solemn words than these were never spoken to the American people.

SEYMOUR'S majority in New York was 60,104,—this exclusive of Brooklyn. The total vote of the City was 135,946. Out of the 22 Wards of the City, 21 went largely Democratic.

SEYMOUR'S majority in Baltimore was 12,451. The total vote of the city was 29,655.

GRANT AND BUTLER.

A Mr. William Jones, of Neenah, Wisconsin, is stated by the Boston Evening Transcript, of the 31st ult., to have recently made a political speech at the place of his residence, in which is given the subjoined epistle:

BAY VIEW, near Lanesville, Mass., August 20th, 1867.

My Dear Sir:—I have read your letter to Mr. Smith, upon the proposed nomination of Grant, with much interest. Its criticisms on Grant's career are just, but what will you do? You cannot get it or anything else concerning Grant that is not laudatory published, and why? Because both sides are courting him for the Presidency, and so the truth must not be told. We are, I fear, to try the experiment again that we did with Johnson, i. e., nominate a man for supposed availability, without knowing his principles or fitness. Grant's election will be a misfortune, because it will put in a man without a head or heart, indifferent to human suffering and impotent to govern.

I am, yours truly,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

THE TENNESSEE CARPET-BAGGERS.

A Herald correspondent, who has been making a tour of observation through Tennessee, describes the condition of affairs in that State in such language as only a Radical partizan could use. He bitterly denounces the "social ostracism," as he calls it, to which the ladies of Tennessee have subjected the adventurers sojourning there, and says a great many vile things against the people of that most unfortunate of States. Nevertheless, he is constrained to tell the character of the carpet-baggers with some show of correctness. His account of them, no doubt, is quite as accurate as he dares to make it, and will apply with equal exactness to the whole tribe whether in Tennessee or elsewhere. Hear him:

"THE CARPET-BAGGERS.

After all, social ostracism, as exercised in the State against Radicals, may, in great part, be laid at the doors of the Northern men who have come down here to rule and ruin, and are doing both with wonderful success. These men are, with few exceptions, a most despicable set of that class of creatures the French call canaille, eager only to fill their capacious pockets with the spoils of office and enrich themselves at other people's expense. To accomplish their ends all the more effectually, they cry down all attempts at enfranchising the disfranchised whites and use the negro to suit their purposes. They no more represent the great Republican party of the North than does Gen. Grant the fanatical Radicals in Congress. They came into the State with very little character and have lost since their advent any little they had before that generally deplored occasion. Besides, they were never noted for any quality that distinguishes the gentleman from the common upstart of low degree. Frankly, the North has no idea of these men who have, like so much vermin, insinuated themselves into every profitable place in the State, polluting everything they touch and plunging the various counties deeper and deeper into debt every day their rule of ruin goes on. They are, comparatively speaking, a very small clique, yet they are all powerful, are apparently responsible to no one, and ask favors of no man who is not a negro. The great majority of them do not own an inch of land in the State, and could not be "attached" to-morrow to the extent of fifty dollars in freehold. Their conduct, public and private, has no doubt had a great deal to do with making social intercourse between Northern and Southern families a thing of almost impracticability, and when it is taken into consideration that many of the Tennessee people of aristocratic pretensions are forced to judge of the Northern people by these miserable specimens in their midst, it is not surprising that their judgment should be so full of bitterness."

GEN. GRANT.—The New York Herald, which for once has advocated the election of a successful candidate for the Presidency, anticipating Gen. Grant's administration, says:

"We look forward in the next place to a good administration from General Grant. From his short experience in the War Department we expect that in the matter of retrenchment he will save, as President, hundreds of millions to the Treasury, and that before he is two years in office the people will appreciate the advantages of his practical reforms in the lightening of our burdens of taxation and in the steady approximation of greenbacks to the gold standard. We expect, too, that under his Conservative policy towards the South the value of Southern lands will so rapidly rise in value as to divert a heavy tide of emigration, enterprise and speculation southward, and that before the end of his administration negro suffrage and the national debt will cease to frighten anybody. Finally, we expect that the election of Gen. Grant will be the beginning of the end of Radicalism and the dawn of a new and better dispensation."

CLINE TOGETHER.—True men of North Carolina, you are linked together in a common political destiny. Show your brotherhood by a close alliance. The chief radical organ of the State has told you that you are to expect no favors from that party, and months ago, it called upon its adherents to support, in business transactions, in buying and selling, and in giving employment, none but the faithful—none but radicals.—Most of the "trooly loil" have acted upon this advice, and it is time that those who have inaugurated such a policy should be made to feel that they too are vulnerable. To the credit of some of the radicals in our city, the party lash has not been able to force them into such a position; but the main body of the party, like sheep, have followed the lead of those whose interests are to be subserved by the course the Standard advised. Such men should be made to feel that they cannot pursue such a policy, in a Southern community, without detriment to their own interest.—Southern Journal of Commerce.

THE NOVEMBER METEORS.—The annual meteoric shower is expected this year between the 12th and 15th of November.—The astronomer of the Cincinnati Observatory writes to the Gazette of that city:

"On the 12th and 15th of November, between the hours of midnight and sunrise, watch will be kept at this observatory for the so-called November meteors. In this labor it is peculiarly advantageous to have the co-operation of several observers, and, as the observations are of a very simple character, the director would cordially invite all who are interested in this subject to unite therein with him. Those who cannot do duty at the observatory may still accomplish something at their own residences, especially if provided with a good watch and star map or globe. A map of the bright stars within forty-five degrees of Leo may, indeed, be easily constructed beforehand, and be used with good results."

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.
The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.
The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.
THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, AND CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.
ILLUSTRATION.
Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.
The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, lives long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death, is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.
To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.
By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.
Losses paid in 30 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Females. No charge for Medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

THE STATE VOTE.

We deem it unnecessary to cumber these columns with details of the results of the election in the various counties. All that have been received, with a statement of relative gains and losses, will be found in the table elsewhere published.

Enough is not known, yet, to approximate even the aggregate result in the State. We have never known returns to come in so slowly.

THE GALLANT DURHAM.

We are inexpressibly gratified to learn that Plato Durham is almost certainly elected to Congress in the Mountain District over A. H. Jones, Radical. He gains 130 in Caldwell, 309 in Rutherford, (C. L. Harris' home,) and largely in Cleveland and Polk. A friend writes us that the counties east of the ridge will give him a small majority, which the counties west of the ridge will greatly increase. Hurrah for Durham! Bold, vigorous and staunch, he deserves all honor for his gallant efforts.

Durham and Shober may be set down, we think, as certainly elected; and the chance is decidedly good for McKoy in the Third District.

"TICKLE ME AND I'LL TICKLE YOU."—Holden telegraphed Gen. Grant, on Thursday, congratulating him on his election, &c., and taking unnecessary occasion to compliment Gen. Miles. The same afternoon Gen. Miles invited Holden out to camp and fired fifteen guns in honor of the "Gov." There has always been a remarkable entente cordiale ostwees these functionaries. Gen. Miles has been very zealous in the cause—even to voting in the election, when it is the opinion of the entire legal profession that he had no right to do so. The opinion of the "Attorney General," however, when he is "come at-able," will settle the matter.

THE RADICALS in this city fired one hundred guns, on yesterday, in honor of Grant's election. Wonder if the State paid for the powder, as it did for that 4th of July platform!

No body objects to these men jubilating as much as they please; but when application was made, on behalf of a sick family, for the gun to be removed to a little more distant point, but fifty yards off, ordinary delicacy and decency would have suggested a compliance.

The firing was carried on in Capitol Square—the same place which Holden refused to grant permission for the ladies to enter, to present their friends with the flag of the Union.

We hear that a man, by the name of Doyle, had his hand badly injured by a premature discharge of the cannon. The rammer was shot some distance down Fayetteville Street, to the serious endangering of the lives of passers by.

This is a free country—for negroes and all sich!

R. B. ANDREWS & Co.—Whoever wants an elegant outfit—from the latest and most beautiful style of hat down to the sock, (our friend Dobbin will fix one up in the boot line,)—let them call at the new and handsome establishment of R. B. Andrews & Co. It is the Clothing Emporium of the State, filled with the most superior quality and make of masculine apparel to be seen anywhere. Strangers visiting the city will find it one of the attractions of Raleigh. Andrews' taste is a proverb, and his facilities are unsurpassed.

W. J. CLARKE has got his "pone of bread." Holden ("Gov") has appointed him "Judge" of the Criminal Court of Newbern, vice A. H. Seymour, resigned.

VADEN, the home of Judge Pearson, is reported to have given a large Democratic gain.

ON TUESDAY morning last, at ten minutes past six o'clock, a light shock of an earthquake was felt in Charlotte and the surrounding country.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Castoria, Tollette Belts, Buggy Whips, and other useful articles: J. Brown, (with Hart & Lewis.)

THE LEGISLATURE.—The following members of the Legislature are thus far believed to have been elected, to fill vacancies occurring in the counties named:

SENATE.

19*th District.*—Sampson, Cumberland and Harnett: John A. Oates, Dem., vice L. D. Hall, Rad., deceased—a Democratic gain.

22*nd District.*—Orange: Maj. John W. Graham, Dem., vice Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Dem., ineligible.

41*st. District.*—Burke, Caldwell and Watauga: Maj. Avery, Dem., vice E. W. Jones, Esq., Dem., ineligible.

12*th District.*—Duplin and Onslow: J. G. Scott, of Onslow, Dem., vice Wm. A. Allen, Dem., ineligible.

24*th District.*—Caswell: A scallawag in place of Hon. Bedford Brown, ineligible,—a Radical gain.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Wayne.—Dr. Smith, vice Rhodes, Rad., resigned—a Democratic gain.

Caldwell.—Maj. W. H. Malone, vice Col. J. C. Harper, Dem., ineligible.

New Hanover.—G. Z. French, Rad., vice J. C. Abbott, carpet-bagger, promoted.

Harnett.—Benj. C. Williams, Dem., vice N. S. Stewart, Dem., ineligible.

The Senators from the 22nd., 41st., 12th. and 24th. Districts were not allowed to take their seats in the Legislature; nor the Representatives from Caldwell or Harnett.

Other results as to Legislature will be announced as they are received.

OUR FAYETTEVILLE LETTER.—We invite attention to the good news contained in the letter of our Fayetteville correspondent. The Democracy of old Cumberland have covered themselves with glory.

For the Sentinel.

Alamance—Wm. A. Smith—Intimidation and Coercion.

COMPANY SHOPS, Nov. 6th, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Now that the din and conflict of battle are over, it may not be inappropriate for the vanquished to survey the ground upon which that battle was fought, and determine the probable causes which led to our defeat.

Who could have believed that Alamance county, with her classic recollections and revolutionary memories, could have been so unmindful of the proud page she has written in American history, as containing the memorable spot on, which the first American blood was spilled in these United States in defence of the great charter of our liberties, as to suffer Radicalism to trample that proud name under foot? Yet, never theless, it is so!

The Radicals carried this county by forty-seven majority, and this change is due to the change in the officials of the N. C. R. R. The President declared that he would d—harge every man, who voted the Democratic ticket, and, consequently, numbers voted the Radical ticket, not from choice, but from fear and necessity. Those noble spirits, who would not bow their necks to receive the despotic yoke or cross their arms to have the chains of slavery rivited thereon, but who declared, by their acts, at the ballot box, that they had rather suffer with the children of Israel than to serve in the Courts of Pharaoh, were, on the following morning, summarily discharged, and the only excuse rendered was because they had voted to turn out W. W. Holden and other state officers! Is this the liberty for which Washington fought and freemen died? Is this the grand Radical idea of progression on which the country is now moving to the proud goal of liberty, peace and prosperity, that a man cannot exercise the privilege of the ballot, according to the dictates of his own conscience, sustained by the superior intelligence of the Anglo Saxon race? They even purged the jail of its convicts, and allowed every man to register and vote, regardless of the character of the crime he may have committed, or the number of stripes he now wears, on his back.

We must "watch and wait" and hope for the better.

Respectfully, &c.,
M.

[If the facts stated above by our correspondent are correct,—and we have no doubt of their truth—this man Wm. A. Smith, President of the North Carolina Railroad, ought to be at once indicted, under the Act of the last Legislature, prohibiting the bribery and coercion of voters. If those worthy men, who have been discharged, on account of their ballot, had been negroes, we should have had a terrible hue and cry about proscription. Being only white mechanics, it makes no difference with mongrel Radicalism.]

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

Glorious Old Cumberland—Moore—Chatham, &c.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Nov. 4.

Editors Sentinel:—Our marching and counter-marching, appealing, speaking, meeting, barbecuing and voting have been for something this time; our efforts have told beyond our most sanguine expectations. The patriotic citizens of the State, in this section, have come manfully and resolutely to her rescue and the vindication of their own honor and interests.

The vote of Cumberland stands as follows, giving the majorities at the different precincts:

	Rad. Majority.	Dem. Majority.
Fayetteville	248	—
Jno. Monroe's	—	30
Quewhiffle	—	52
Seventy First	—	123
Rock Fish	—	141
Flea Hill	—	39
Gray's Creek	—	2
Cedar Creek	—	14
Carver's Creek	52	—
Lock's Creek	37	—
Black River	—	16
Total	337	417

The above shows a Democratic majority for the whole county of 80 votes. Cumberland went Radical in April by 337 votes; therefore we have gained in this county 617 votes. There were twenty seven colored Democratic votes in the town proper yesterday, against two at the last election; and 48 white Radical votes, against more than double that number in April.

The news from Moore, Sampson, Robeson and Chatham is in the highest degree encouraging and satisfactory. Moore, which in April went 359 Radical, sends us news from four precincts, all Democratic.—It is confidently believed that the county is safe for us. Chatham has been completely revolutionized. Radical at the last election by 684 votes, sufficient has been heard to make her certainly Democratic. Sampson of course takes the front with a rousing majority of 806 votes, a gain of 354 on her last majority of 154 votes. Robeson, Radical in April by 354 votes, has gone Democratic. These statements are not speculations, but facts. I will give you as full returns as possible to-morrow.

To-night there is another torch light procession and jollification of the Democrats of Fayetteville. Cannon, speeches, bonfire, &c., &c. CLIO.

EUROPEAN CORRESPONDENCE.

The following extracts from a letter (to a friend in this city, who has kindly furnished it to us) from a citizen of Raleigh, now travelling in Europe, will be found full of interest:

BERNE, SWITZERLAND, Oct. 15th., 1868.

"Since writing you last, I have been up and down, over and under, the Alps. I have posted in four-horse diligences—six horse carriages—have travelled on three railroads—mule back and on foot,—have plunged knee-deep in snow—crawled over ice, in ice caves, crawled down rocks and been delighted with it all! M—— will show you a picture of our party, as we returned from Mont Blanc.

At Zermatt, we ascended 9,634 feet; the last mile, we footed it through the snow. We then had 24 snow peaks around us, 4 glaciers below us, and the Matterhorn just in front—a sharp rock, too steep for the snow to rest upon, towering 4,000 feet above us, on one of the few cloudless days of the year. From there, I started across the Simplon, but, as soon as I had descended half way down the Italian side, was stopped at Isello, (where it had been raining 18 days,) with the information that it was dangerous to go further. Next day the road was found to be gone, both sides of me,—the valley where I was being only 60 yards wide.

* * * * We remained at Niglon three days,—a beautiful city—and here I saw a thing that might be of use to our people. In the wide streets were single tracks of hewn stone—there were three feet of McAdamized road, and, on each side, a hewn stone 16 inches wide—so that a single horse could walk on the McAdamized road, and the wheels of the vehicle would be on smooth stone. What I would do with our streets at home is this: McAdamize 16 feet in the middle of the street. Then put down, one foot from each edge, a line of cut stone, 16 inches wide; then three feet of McAdamized road; then another 16 inches of stone, and then McAdamize them in the centre. This stone ought to be 4 inches thick; as to length it does not matter, so that the ends fit nicely. The stone, and the McAdamized road, are all on one surface, but the effect of a stone railroad, on which any kind is wheeled vehicle can run. An ordinary mule will draw 5,000 pounds over it, and it has the same effect on a street, that a street railroad has—all the carriages and wagons get on the right hand track, and keep in line until they wish to stop. It is worth a dozen City railroads, is much cheaper, and is used for all purposes. Why it is not adopted in all our cities, I do not understand; in Northern Italy, 'tis in universal use.

I spent one day in Turin, and then started back by the Mont Cenis Railroad. I found it not only the safest road over the mountains, but one of the safest Railroads I ever travelled on. I will only describe, now, the middle rail—when I come home I will describe the rest, for I peeped under locomotive and cars until I have a tolerably clear idea of the arrangement. The track is about 3½ feet wide, well McAdamized—cross ties thick, but small. The rail is U, about 40 lbs. Each cross tie is let into the under side of a timber, showing ten inch face. On this, over each cross tie, is a wrought iron chair, bolted through its feet, through longitudinal timbers and cross ties. On top of the chair are laid flat ways in it rail bolted to each chair, and showing a face both ways. On each face of this there are two driving wheels under the locomotive, which are held to this by powerful springs, and are worked by the same pair of elevators that the other wheels are. The cars are about the size of omnibus bodies, each carrying 12 passengers. To each axle there is a small pair of wheels, that work on the middle rail—flange below the rail.—They can stop the train in ten feet, on a descending grade of 1 in 12. We travelled from 5 to 15 miles an hour.

Yesterday, I travelled over a beautiful country, from Geneva to Berne; the land is valuable for farming—that in cuion making $700 an acre; for grapes $1200. Grape juice is worth, this year, a franc per gallon, on account of a large vintage; 'tis usually about 30 cents. The land, originally, was not so good as Buncombe County. Hotel keeping is the business of Switzerland.—There are, usually, for the four months of summer, 50,000 visitors here, all the time.—These pay out, in that time, $30,000,000.—The landlords are the monied men of the country, and there are splendid hotels, everywhere; some at elevations of 7,000 feet.—The oats are brought from Hungary, some of the wheat from California, and the oil, for lights, from Pittsburg, Pa. The travellers are ½ English, ¼ Americans, ¼ Europeans."

"The success of Grant," it says, "no one is disposed to regret. He has fairly won his high rank by hard work real devotion to his country and services which will live long in its remembrance. He is no politician, and will take his office with greater freedom than if he had uttered all the shibboleths of party."

SALISBURY, Nov. 6, P. M.

The following is the vote of Union: Seymour 930, Grant 811. Shober 930, Boyden 807.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6, P. M.

Grant left Galena on yesterday, and will spend several days on the route. He writes that he would much prefer returning home quietly without any demonstration here,—suggesting that, a few days after his arrival, his friends can visit him at his residence.

A delegation of Democrats from New York are urging McCulloch's removal. McCulloch expresses a willingness to retire, on the slightest intimation from the President.

The following order has been issued:

"HEAD QUARTERS OF THE ARMY,
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., October 31, 1868.

Soldiers may, for certain offences not strictly military, be sentenced, by a general Court Marshal, to confinement in a Penitentiary.

If any State in a military department has made provision, by law, for confinement in a Penitentiary thereof of prisoners under sentence by a court martial of the United States, any department commander may designate such Penitentiary as a place for the execution of any such a sentence as to the Penitentiary confinement.—But if no such provision has been made by any State in the department, the record will be forwarded to the Secretary of War for designation of a prison.

The authority which has designated the place for confinement, or higher authority, can change the place of confinement, or mitigate or remit the sentence. The same rules apply to prisoners sentenced by military commissions, so long as the law under which the military commission acted is in force, but, when that law ceases to be in operation, the President, alone, can change the place of confinement, or mitigate or remit the sentence.

By command of General Grant:

(Signed) E. O. TOWNSEND,
Asst. Adj. General."

Johnson, Democrat, telegraphs from California that he is elected to Congress.

The annual report of the Freedmen's Bureau, just made by General Howard, shows an expenditure, during the year, of three millions, nine hundred and seventy thousand dollars.

He sees no necessity for continuing the Bureau beyond New Year's day, at which time it expires by Congressional limitation, and his recommendations for the future look only to continuing the Freedmen's Hospitals at Washington, Richmond, Vicksburg and New Orleans. The estimate for all of which amounts to only ninety thousand dollars.

FROM FLORIDA—GOV. REED IMPEACHED.

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 6, P. M.

Harrison Reed, (Radical,) Governor of the State, was impeached by the Legislature, today—charged with high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

The charges were preferred by Horatio Jenkens, President of the late Constitutional Convention.—three-fourths of the members present voting in the affirmative. All of the members were not in attendance.

Governor Reed will contest the case. His friends claim that the body in session is illegal.

GEORGIA.

AUGUSTA, Nov 6, P. M.

Seventy counties give a Democratic majority of over 30,000.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 6, P. M.

Negroes all quiet to-day. Two small fights occurred.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF GUILFORD Superior Court, we will expose to public sale, on the premises, at 12 o'clock, M., on THURSDAY, the 26th day of November, on a credit of six and twelve months, bond and approved security, that valuable plantation of the late Col. D. G. Evans, lying on the Yadkin River, in Davidson County, containing about 160 acres, more or less. A large proportion of said Land is cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a number of plank houses formerly used as tobacco houses, Barns, &c.

Also, a building Lot of 5 acres, with two small buildings and Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Hollsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power inexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

We will also sell, at the Court House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent Plantation upon which the late Col Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5 000 acres, known as the Gaston place, or Beech wood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The lands are of the very best quality known in the Eastern part of the State, which is famous for its productiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vast marl bed, immense quantities of which Col. Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at and in inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place. Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1866-'67. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the productions of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. "Bryce's Creek," which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER,

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process, must necessarily full them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds passes through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.
